

The Greenville Housing Authority

August 2017

RESIDENT SERVICES

Three young ladies were awarded college scholarships for the 2017-2018 school year. Shanautika Simmons was awarded an $1000 Nelrod scholarship and $1000 CCHRCO scholarship. Shanautika is attending Lander University in Greenwood, SC, where she is pursuing her Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. Ciorra Marbury was awarded $1000 from the Nelrod Scholarship Committee. Ciorra is attending the the State University of New York (SUNY) in Cobleskill, NY, where she is pursuing her Bachelor's degree in Animal Science. After obtaining her undergraduate degree, Ciorra plans to continue on to veterinary school to earn her degree in veterinary medicine. Destiny Hatcher was awarded $1000, also from Nelrod. Destiny is currently attending Greenville Technical College, where she will study for two years before transferring to a 4-year university, with plans to pursue her Bachelor's degree in psychology. In honor of Ms. Felsie Harris' 10 years of exemplary service on TGHA's Board of Commissioners, the Nelrod Scholarship was named The Felsie Harris Scholarship. Ms. Felsie Harris is pictured here with each of the award recipients (left to right, Shanautika Simmons, Ciorra Marbury, Destiny Hatcher)

